

U.S. REPORT

British hands on the White House

The American people are being fed a new hoax. Press headlines to the contrary, Jimmy Carter has not just fired half his cabinet. Every bizarre action reported taken by the Carter Administration since Camp David has been the product of a conspiracy. This is a conspiracy to end democracy in the United States and put the nation under the fascist dictatorship of Gen. Alexander Haig.

It may also mean World War III in the near term ahead.

It is not accidental that among the new faces in Jimmy Carter' cabinet, energy and transportation appointees Duncan and Claytor come straight out of the Pentagon. During the past week's Washington circus, French radio reported that the Pentagon has warned all Arab governments of imminent "piracy" in the Persian Gulf. More specifically, the warnings emanated, as cited in the wire services, from the Office of Naval Intelligence (ONI), Claytor's—currently Secretary of the Navy—own bailiwick. Spokesmen for the Kuwaiti government have taken this for a signal that the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency (run by the British intelli-

The Haig transition team

Cyrus Vance's overhaul of Jimmy Carter's cabinet has not handed power to a "Georgia mafia" but has installed a grouping of men associated with the Republican front man for the Alexander Haig presidential campaign, John Connally. The new appointees, not accidentally featuring two who come directly from the Pentagon, are all products of the branch-machine of the New York Council on Foreign Relations and Zionist lobby in the south, the machine that runs Connally. This "Haig transition team" includes:

Charles W. Duncan. Named head of the Department of Energy in the stead of James Schlesinger, who has departed for the Haig campaign itself, Duncan is trained in the prerequisites for martial-law administration of energy supplies. Duncan comes from an old patrician southern family (Confederacy-rooted) and has served at the Rand Corporation as a lieutenant of Coca-Cola brewer J. Paul Austin, Rand chairman. USAF intelligence, for which Rand "thinks," is the most British and Israeli-penetrated of any U.S. agency, a distinction flowing from the role of Austin's Rand as a creation of London's International Institute for Strategic Studies.

Until his appointment at Energy, Duncan has been the number two man at the Pentagon, where he led the DOD "policy review" directed at blackmailing Saudi Arabia into allowing U.S. bases in the Persian Gulf. He has generally directed U.S. plans to "protect" Gulf oilfields, which translate as contingency planning of future oil flow disruptions.

Duncan was recommended for his Pentagon post by Robert Strauss of the Connally Texas-Zionist machine. Strauss, both Carter trade negotiator and Mideast troubleshooter, dispatched Duncan to the Mideast in a recent effort to push the Egypt-Israel "Camp David" accord from the status of a treaty to a full-fledged "Middle East Treaty Organization" military alliance.

William Graham Claytor. Claytor is to head Transportation for 30 days and then will replace Duncan as the number two man at the Pentagon. He is currently Secretary of the Navy, and will use his 30 days at Transportation to plan the militarization of transportation for a Haig administration. Of an old Confederate patrician family, Claytor is chairman of the Southern Railway Corporation and of umpteen smaller gence-ONI group under the direction of Rhodes Scholar Admiral Stansfield Turner) will unleash terrorists to block the Strait of Hormuz, through which three-quarters of the world's oil supply is shipped.

The inflammatory Persian Gulf caper is part of the same cynical plot as the Washington "massacre"—brought to you by the same people who engineered the oil hoax. In a telephone interview which we excerpt below, one of Haig's top presidential campaign advisors revealed that a series of shattering U.S. foreign policy humiliations will be deliberately manipulated to increase international chaos.

As a result, Carter will be "out by October," Haig's advisor predicted, following a string of disasters including a Weimar-style dollar collapse.

Behind the clown show

Here are the facts behind the clown show in Washington:

1. Carter has not fired anyone. James Schlesinger, Michael Blumenthal, Brock Adams, Griffin Bell, and Joseph Califano left the government of their own accord.

2. The mass resignations were stage-managed by Secretary of State Cyrus Vance at the Tuesday, July 17 cabinet meeting. The next day, as the resignations exploded into the press, Vance was in private meetings with the congressional leadership—meetings which were followed by tirades against Carter from nearly every Capitol Hill figure, the so-called Democratic and Republican congressional leaderships associated with the New York Council on Foreign Relations, which was originally established as the U.S. branch of Britain's Royal Institute of International Affairs. It should be noted that Haig was an early protégé of both Califano and Vance, and is described by an intimate as being "very close to Vance in particular."

3. The resignation script was drafted before and during Jimmy Carter's recent Camp David retreat in a series of meetings held by members of the New York Council on Foreign Relations and the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith. The most important of these meetings took place at the end of June in Brussels, NATO headquarters, with Gen. Haig (the outgoing Supreme Commander of NATO) present. Also attending were ADL members including Amos Perlmutter.

4. At these meetings, the notorious Eizenstat memorandum was put together. This memorandum calls for the de facto abrogation of constitutional democracy in the United States. It outlines a plan for government by railways from the Potomac to Florida. Southern Railway is the premier corporate entity of the old British Morgan-McCloy banking interests for the south.

Claytor was a political protégé of Zionist Louis Brandeis and the Brandeis circle that also groomed John Connally. He went from the University of Virginia to Harvard law school, where he edited the Harvard Law Review, and launched an intelligence career by becoming law clerk to Brandeis on the Supreme Court, and then partner at the Cavington and Burling law firm in Washington. The firm's chief partner was William Bundy, Council on Foreign Relations director.

John Macey. Macey has been appointed head of the Federal Emergency Management Agency, an unconstitutional body designed to play a key "transition" role in the creation and management of artificial crises—e.g., terrorist outbreaks, etc.—that could propel Haig into the White House; FEMA is then to direct the militarization of government that would follow. From 1961-69, Macey was special assistant to both Presidents John Kennedy and Lyndon Johnson for review and recommendation on White House appointments. He recommended most of the gentlemen who orchestrated and ran the 1960s race riots as "Operation Garden Plot," under "domestic troubleshooter" Cyrus Vance. That Macey job, the fact that he was chairman of the Public Broadcasting Corporation, a "clone" of the British Broadcasting Corporation, and now, his move to FEMA, sufficiently denote what his function will be in connection with a militarized U.S. government.

Benjamin Civiletti. Replacing Griffin Bell as U.S. Attorney General, Civiletti is an employee of the major Baltimore Zionist families; he played a major role in the old Kennedy Justice Department cabal that organized the "Get Hoffa" and other operations.

Civiletti has announced that his first priority at Justice will be to "clear up" the "Peanutgate" scandal involving Carter loans to a Georgia bank—which coincides with information from a Haig aide that the current President is to be "out of office by October."

Hedley Donovan. Donovan, who was in the news most recently for his glowing praise of Ted Kennedy when introducing the senator to a Council on Foreign Relations gathering, is the director of the CFR. There was no excuse to get him into the government, so a new post, Special Advisor to the President on everything, was created for him to occupy. Donovan is director of Time-Life, Inc., whose Clare Booth Luce is a "Dame" of the British Order of the Knights of St. John of Jerusalem. Donovan himself was an Oxford Rhodes Scholar, and has been one of the most important British Crown representatives in the United States ever since.
