

broadcast to the entire Arab world a translation of the Labor Party's exposé of the British and Israeli intelligence networks that control the Brotherhood.

Further, according to Arab sources, several Arab governments are planning a coordinated investigation into the subversion of the Arab world and Iran by such pillars of British imperial policy as the Aspen Institute, the Bilderberg Society, and the Jesuits of Georgetown University. U.S. Labor Party investigators are presently supplying information to Arab officials concerning such subversion, including matters relating to the assassination in 1975 of King Faisal of Saudi Arabia.

What triggered the otherwise apparently sudden Arab interest in LaRouche and the Labor Party was the realization throughout the Arab world that Ayatollah Khomeini and his fascist Muslim extremist regime is a puppet creation of British intelligence and Israel—and not, as many Arab leaders foolishly believed, a victory of the “Iranian masses.”

That failure of Arab intelligence services—which was underlined in a Citizens for LaRouche's White Paper, “U.S. Middle East Policy”—sufficiently shocked some Arabs enough to set into motion a new political process.

Terror against the Gulf

The crisis which began with the destruction of Iran is still threatening to blow up the entire Persian Gulf, and the recent Arab moves to hit the British enemy between the eyes may not be fast enough. According to Al-Qabas, the CIA is presently training a hit squad of “professional terrorists” who plan to hijack an oil tanker in the Persian Gulf's Straits of Hormuz—through which passes two-thirds of OPEC's entire oil output! This, says Al-Qabas, would serve as a pretext for a U.S. invasion of the Gulf.

Various media here and in Europe and the Middle East reported yesterday that the Pentagon has sent special warnings to some Arab governments that terrorists may attack oil tankers. Some sources, including London's Financial Times, even “predict” that the attack will come on July 23. According to French sources, the warnings—threats—to the Arabs came from “U.S. naval intelligence.”

Terrorism against the Gulf has been, for at least six months, a leading option for the Carter administration in order to create the conditions to enforce the insane energy policy and drastic consumption cutbacks in Carter's “moral equivalent of war.” The threat of an explosion in the Gulf, which would force the world's industrial economies to grind to a halt, is directed especially at France and West Germany.

Arabs consolidate alliance

In the face of such imminent threats, worsened by the constant U.S. reminders that Washington maintains a 110,000-man strike force, the Arabs are building their own alliances, including closer links with Paris and Bonn. For the first time there are signs of the Arabs moving to support Mexican President José López Portillo's call for a worldwide energy and transfer-of-technology conference.

Al Qabas fingers Lewis, Bilderberg for terrorism

The following is an excerpt from the Kuwaiti daily Al Qabas, which earlier this month featured a front-page article exposing who is behind terror and instability in the Middle East. The exposé is critical to halting the wave of British- and Israeli-sponsored terror scheduled to hit the United States and Europe in the wake of the terrorism conference recently held in Jerusalem. At that conference, a series of scenarios for an escalation of terrorist strikes was worked out, behind a facade of antiterrorist rhetoric.

An editorial in the same issue of Al Qabas charged that the Aleppo massacre was “punishment for the crime committed by Syria and Iraq: their rejection of the [Israel-Egypt] peace treaty and their steps toward unity between the two countries.” The editorial warned that “what happened in Syria could happen anywhere in the area,” and cited Iraq as a prime target. “The incident in Syria is a warning to all the Arabs because the plot in the end involves all of them.”

The Aleppo incident [the massacre of 70 Syrian cadets in Aleppo, Syria—ed.] is the immediate result of a secret meeting held by the Bilderberg Group (a secret organization), which includes important political figures and well known financial personalities in the West. The last meeting held by this organization in Baden, Austria, discussed the instability in the Middle East.

The Bilderberg Group also discussed ways which would ensure the downfall of certain regimes in the Middle East.

The brain behind the “Bernard Lewis Plan,” which calls for using the religious minorities to hit at the regimes in the Middle East, is Professor Bernard Lewis, who is an unofficial member of the Bilderberg Group.
